

Sanitary cubicles and partitions for wet areas SLKA 01S12N

Illustrative photo

Characteristics

- designed for wet areas
- for separating individual showers, including doors and standalone units partitions
- custom production
- 12 mm HPL laminate walls
- AISI 304 stainless steel fittings
- anodized aluminum profiles
- hygienically safe surface

Technical Specification

|                     |   |
|---------------------|---|
| Dimensions   | total height 2100 mm, cubicle width according to customer specification, gap height from floor 150 mm   |
| Wall filling | HPL laminate, 12 mm thick, standard color grey or white, other colors at extra charge   |
| Doors        | HPL laminate, 12 mm thick, standard color grey or white, other colours at extra charge, self-closing hinges, stainless steel closer with free/occupied indicator or handle with cylinder lock |
| Fittings     | stainless steel AISI 304  |
| Construction | U profile for attaching panels to the wall, anodized aluminum, upper tubular stainless steel profile  |

Supply Specification

SLKA 01S12N (order number) - Supply No. 40017 set of parts for assembly according to order

Components

U profile for attaching panels to the wall (anodized aluminium)

upper tubular profile, diameter 30 mm (stainless steel); for panel widths up to 60 cm, the upper profile does not need to be used adjustable foot (stainless steel) door handle for cubicle (stainless steel) handle with cylinder lock (stainless steel)

door closer with free/occupied indicator or handle

self-closing hinges (stainless steel) hook (stainless steel)

door stop (stainless steel)